

DAILY NEWS.

STONE & UZZELLI, PROPRIETORS.
FAYETTEVILLE STREET.
Over W. C. Stronach & Co's Store.
CASH—INvariably in ADVANCE.

The DAILY NEWS will be delivered to subscribers at FIFTEEN CENTS per copy payable to the subscriber. Monthly $1 per annum; $5.25 for six months; $2 for three months; and WEEKLY NEWS at 22 cents per annum.

The Raleigh Daily News.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1873.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

MORNING EDITION.

All parties ordering the News will please send the money for the time the paper is wanted.

NOTICES Inserted Under the especial City Items" head for 15 cents per line for first insertion, and 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

Contractors will not be allowed,
under their contracts, to advertise
such other than their legitimate business, unless by paying specially for such advertisements.

POST OFFICE DIRECTORY.

RALEIGH POST OFFICE ARRANGEMENT.
Office hours from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., during the week (except while the mails are being distributed).

TIME OF ARRIVAL AND CLOSING THE MAIL.
West—Wilmington, La., Augusta,
and Columbia, S.C.; Charlotte, Salisbury,
and Winston-Salem, Chapel Hill, Hillsborough, etc., etc., at 10 a.m.; Close at 5 p.m.

Eastern—Charleston, S.C., Wilmington,
New Bern, Morehead, Goldsboro, etc., due 9:30 a.m.

Close 9:30 a.m.

Northern—New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington, Richmond, Petersburg, New Orleans, etc., due at 3:30 p.m.

Close 9:30 a.m.

Chatham Railroad—Fayetteville, Jonesboro, Apex, Gosport, etc., due 10 a.m. Close 10 a.m.

Miscellaneous—Eagle Rock, Monday and Thursday, due 11:30 a.m., close 1 p.m. Roxboro, every Tuesday, due 11:30 a.m., close 1 p.m., close 1 p.m. Averasboro, close 8:30 a.m. Thursdays, due 6 p.m. Fridays.

Office hours for Registered Letters and Money Order Department, from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

No mails are received or sent on Sunday, the office will not be opened on that day.

W. W. HOLDEN, P. M.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Gen. B. Hawkins was in the city yesterday.

Gen. P. B. Hawkins was in the city yesterday.

Kemp P. Battle, Esqr., returned to the city yesterday.

The crops in this county are very fair
as a general thing.

Tobacco wagons from Milton range
even as low down the country as Raleigh.

According to law the saloons were closed yesterday and thirsty souls were numerous.

We are glad to learn that the health of the city has greatly improved in the past few weeks.

A runaway mule team yesterday afternoon broke, for a short time, the monotony of McDowell Street.

We understand that quite a number from this city will participate in the excursion to Greensboro to-day.

The raising of heavy timbers to the top of the Williamson building yesterday attracted more attention and created more excitement than the election.

On Wednesday night a parcel of bad boys made a horrible noise with tin pans and horns in the Hell's half-acre neighborhood. The police should look after the youngsters.

Green, of the Durham Tobacco Plant, got his "back up" because we called his town "Durbans." We take it all back Green—wont do so any more. Now take your back down.

A colored girl about ten years of age
was bitten by a highland moccasin day before yesterday in House's Creek township. She was very ill for a few hours, but is now recovering from the effects.

We call attention of the proper authorities that the slaughter house, situated in the northern portion of the city, near the R. & G. R. R., is complained of as being very offensive in smell.

REUNION OF WARREN COUNTY SOL-DIERS.—We are requested to state that there will be reunion of the Confederate soldier of Warren county at Warrenton tomorrow, Saturday. Our subscribers at Henderson, Mansfield, Ridgeway, Mason and Littleton will please send out this notice as far in the interior as we can to day, that all may hear of the meeting and go. We are glad to see that meetings of this character are being held in many of the counties, as the main object is to devise plans and means of getting up county histories of its soldiers. Warren county furnished her full quota of good men to the lost cause,
and no county in the State has a brighter record. The history of the gallant deeds of her sons would be an honor to the State, and it should be written. Warren furnished a full General, Major General and a Brigadier, and as many regimental officers as any other one county in the State.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED THE WALLS.—Major Wil-
liams, a small colored boy about fifteen
years of age, who was committed to
jail in default of $100 bail as a witness,
made good his escape yesterday by scat-
ting the walls that enclose the prison.
The jailor permitted the boy to take
some rubbish from the cell in which he
was confined to the yard, and though
he was closely watched he went over
the high fence with squirrel celerity,
and from the time he made his escape
to the exciting story of his escape
to his family on Fishing Creek in War-
ren county.

SEALED

The Raleigh Daily News.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

FRIDAY..... AUGUST 8, 1873.

OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD.
Number six of Our Living and Our Dead brings up the war history of the State to the 20th day of May, 1861—the day on which the ordinance of secession was passed.

The next issue, number seven, will be devoted almost exclusively to important political documents relating to that eventful step and the measures immediately succeeding and resulting from it.

Our Living and Our Dead this week contains two poetical selections, one on the imprisonment of Jefferson Davis, on the imprisonment of Jefferson Davis, at Fortress Monroe, and the other by J. Augustine Sanguino, of Mississippi, "Tell the boys I'm coming soon," a beautiful and touching poem founded upon an affecting incident of the war.

The Roll of Honor this week sketches the first Battalion, (Artillery,) and the second Battalion.

Several Acts of the Legislature of 1861 are given, providing for the public defence, raising troops, creating a military board, &c., together with a proclamation by Governor Ellis, under a requirement of the Legislature, ordering an election to be held on the 13th of May, 1861, for delegates to a Convention to be held in Raleigh on the 20th of May, 1861.

Next, telegrams relating to the arming and equipment of volunteers, the distribution of forces, &c., &c., from May 12th to May 29th, 1861. The following will serve as a specimen of most of the others.

"RICHMOND, May 29, 1861.

Governor Ellis:
Please urge forward your regiments with the greatest speed. They should be armed and supplied with ammunition and equipments. Can you forward any percussion caps?

JEFF. DAVIS."

A letter of Mr. Russell, the war correspondent of the London Times, written from Montgomery, Ala., the capital of the Southern Confederacy, on the 8th of May, 1861, occupies two columns of space.

The Diary of a young lady and the record of events for the month of May, together with an Editorial Review, complete the war articles in the sixth number of Our Living and Our Dead.

This valuable publication increases in interest with each number. Every Confederate soldier who is able to spare two dollars, and every citizen who takes a pride in the part performed by the troops from this State should become a subscriber.

DR. SATCHWELL'S ADDRESS.
We acknowledge the receipt from its distinguished author, or the author himself, delivered by Dr. S. S. Satchwell, A. M., M. D., of North Carolina, before the Alumni Association of the University of the City of New York, Medical Department, on March the 4th, 1873. The address is printed from the Charleston Medical Journal and Review of July 1873.

It will be remembered that we copied from the New York World and Tribune complimentary notices of this address soon after its delivery.

Of the medical merits of Dr Satchwell's effort, of course we know nothing, but as the address also treats of other subjects, including some reference to politics, we shall read it at our leisure and will notice it more at length hereafter.

The Wilmington Journal says that Butler, the Beast, must now give way to Pool, the Infamous.

WHO IS SHE?
The Richmond Enquirer is responsible for the announcement, which has been extensively copied by the press, that the sweetest singer of sacred music in Rome is a North Carolina lady.

It is stated by another paper that her singing attracted such large crowds that the Priest has prohibited her from again appearing in the choir.

The ladies want to know.

"Burke," the European correspondent of the Piedmont Press, writing from London, July 19th, 1873, says that Englishmen seem "to have a liking for the Southern branch of Uncle Sam's family which they are not so ready to profess for Northern brethren."

The same correspondent says that Professor Kerr, our State Geologist, in whose company he is traveling, seems determined every day to do his best.

ELECTION NEWS.

We request our friends throughout the State to forward to us as soon as practicable authentic returns of the vote on the constitutional amendments.

By complying with this request, they will place us under special obligations.

It may be several days before the returns from some of the Western counties are received; but we trust our friends in that section, as well as in the East, will send them to us as soon as the mail facilities will permit.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA.

Gen. James L. Kemper, one of the heroes of Gettysburg, was nominated yesterday by the Conservatives for Governor of Virginia.

The gallant Kemper will defeat the Western Sentinel credit for two editorials which were taken from the DAILY NEWS by the latter paper.

ENDORsing SETTLE—WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

We notice that the Republicans of Edgecombe recently held a mass-meeting in Tarboro, in which A. McCabe, the present Senator from that county, figured conspicuously. The meeting seems to have had no other object in view than to endorse the claims of Judge Thomas Settle, of the Supreme Court, as a patriot, statesman and true and unwavering Republican.

On Monday night, the Radicals of Newbern held a meeting to denounce the constitutional amendments and the present Postmaster of that city, at which resolutions were passed highly laudatory of Settle. One of the resolutions calls him "one of the leading benefactors of Republicanism in North Carolina," and another expresses pride in him as an honorable citizen and admiration for his statesmanship, and bids him "God-speed in securing whatever of reward the people of our State may choose to bestow."

It seems from this that Settle's friends have determined to take time by the forelock and to be prepared for any emergency that may arise hereafter in Radical State Conventions, where horrors are to be dispensed.

OF COURSE.

The fact that Captain Jack and his confederates have all been found guilty and sentenced to be shot by the Military Commission excites no surprise anywhere—as it was a foregone conclusion.

The proceedings of the Court only await the approval of the President.

The question of Indian wrongs has not been investigated and the Modocs have no prospect that their doom will be arrested.

The Baltimore Gazette says that Captain Jack will move for a new trial, and that a western paper proposes that the motion be granted, with the understanding that Judge LYNCH preside at the second trial. Justice would be more even handed, if LYNCH should get hold of some of Jack's persecutors.

SOLOMON POOL.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS.
From the Piedmont Press.
Solomon Pool the late Republican "dry nurse" of the University, fears obscurity, and in order to avert this he has written a slanderous letter concerning a distinguished lady of this State, which places him on the highest round in the ladder of infamy. The author of that infamous article "work" could not attain so high distinction as Pool. Page had not the sacred robes of a gospel minister to desecrate.

(From the Hillsboro Recorder.)
The slander falls harmless upon Mrs. Spencer. Those whose good opinion are worth having, turn a contemptuous ear to the assault aimed at her character. But though innocuous the very attempt has shocked the sensibilities of the land, raised a storm of indignation, from which Pool will be wise to seek a safe place among brave men.

He is a brand, that, unlike that of Cain, is an invitation to chastise, not a guarantee of safety.

Wherever he goes, he is in danger of meeting the scouring the natural protectors of the insulted lady are unable from their position to inflict. Her cause becomes that of every gentleman in the land.

The letter of Pool is wanton, base, unmanly, and totally indefensible.

From Tobacco Plant.
The character of Mr. Pool's reply is such at we do not believe deserves a place in our paper. His low flung allusion to Mrs. Spencer in connection with Victoria Woodhull, exhibits a disregard for the virtues of a refined lady, that should be deprecated and disdained by all good citizens.

The Wilmington Journal says that Butler, the Beast, must now give way to Pool, the Infamous.

WHO IS SHE?
The Richmond Enquirer is responsible for the announcement, which has been extensively copied by the press, that the sweetest singer of sacred music in Rome is a North Carolina lady.

It is stated by another paper that her singing attracted such large crowds that the Priest has prohibited her from again appearing in the choir.

The ladies want to know.

"Burke," the European correspondent of the Piedmont Press, writing from London, July 19th, 1873, says that Englishmen seem "to have a liking for the Southern branch of Uncle Sam's family which they are not so ready to profess for Northern brethren."

The same correspondent says that Professor Kerr, our State Geologist, in whose company he is traveling, seems determined every day to do his best.

NO THANKS.

The Wilmington Journal does not give thanks to President Grant and Attorney General Williams for their manifestations of clemency this late day, in behalf of the Ku Klux prisoners at Albany. The same reasons existed for their pardon when they were first convicted as exist now. But their incarceration was a political necessity!

Solomon Pool's second letter, published in the last Era, is a "most lame and impotent" apology—it apology it can be called, for his shameful attack on the character of one of the first ladies of the State.

The last Danbury Reporter gives the Western Sentinel credit for two editorials which were taken from the DAILY NEWS by the latter paper.

The gallant Kemper will defeat the Western Sentinel credit for two editorials which were taken from the DAILY NEWS by the latter paper.

NEW FASHIONABLE DRESS MAKING.

Good facilities for giving satisfaction, both in style and prices. The ladies are respectfully invited to give me a trial. Rooms connected with Sewing Machine office, up stairs over Mrs. Ettinger's Millinery store, Fayetteville street, Raleigh N. C. 1st fl HATTIE A. MARKLAND.

SHINGLES & SASHINGLES.

3,000 White Pine Shingles,
2,200 Cypress Heart Shingles.
For sale cheap.
July 21st W. C. STRONACH.

MORGAN'S SAPOLIO FOR THE HOUSE. by W. C. STRONACH.

DOUBLE AND SINGLE WAGON
and Buggy Harness, Saddles, Bridles, Aug 3-12 G. T. STRONACH & BRO'S.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

REMOVAL OF M. ROSENBAUM & BRO.

On or before the first of September, we will move into a new, fitted up store, No. 44 Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C., next door to Mr. Alfred Williams' Book Store, where we will keep the usual stock of books, &c., & Goods, &c., Books, &c., Ready-made Clothing, Carpets, Oil-cloths, Trunks, Valises, Satchels, &c., &c.

Call early if you wish to secure bargains.
100 pair $1 25 per pair $3 50.
M. ROSENBAUM & BRO.
Era please copy.

PIEDMONT SPRINGS

WILL BE

OPEN FOR VISITORS JULY 1ST.

All the buildings have been thoroughly repaired. Every cabin newly built, and the grounds beautifully arranged. In fact, the buildings that could be found in the most desolate state of decay since the Company has owned the property, has been done to make it comfortable in every respect, and we can safely promise a limited number of visitors this season, good fare and good attention at low rates as can be afforded. The hotel will be open to visitors from the 1st of July to the 1st of September.

"PIEDMONT."

The scenery surrounding "OLD PIEDMONT" are too well known to require any description here.

THE HOTEL

and general management for this season will be in charge of Mr. S. B. TAYLOR, of Danbury, N. C., assisted by Mrs. Taylor.

THE BAR AND BILLIARD ROOMS

having been rented to a gentleman who knows his business, will be conducted in first-class city style.

THE TEN-PIN ALLEY has been built, and with especial care to the comfort of lady patrons.

Convenient with a room from Kermersville, leaving Kermersville Tuesdays, Thursdays and Wednesdays; leaving Piedmont Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, N. C. It is connected with Winston and the Springs, over a splendid level road until within some three miles of Piedmont, when it turns off to the right, and with all mail carriers for visitors at Piedmont should be directed to "Piedmont Springs, care Stage Agent, Winston, N. C."

TERMS:

Board per Day $2 50 | Per Week $15 00
BOARD PER MONTH, $40 00

Children and Servants half price.

For bills of $100 per week, $20, fifteen per cent off.

For further particulars apply to S. B. TAYLOR, Manager, Danbury, N. C.

W. E. WILLIAMSON, C. M. FLINN, R. G. PACE, Owners.

June 27-1873

S T A T E F A I R , 1873.

THIRTEENTH GRAND ANNUAL FAIR

OF THE

North Carolina Agricultural Society,

RALEIGH, N. C.,

Oct 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th & 18th.

One Thousand Dollars in Premiums.

New and Attractive Grounds.

Magnificent Buildings.

Accommodations for seating 8,000 People.

Railroad arrangements—the most elaborate ever made with the latest mechanical or mechanical Society in the State.

Articles for exhibition transported free and delivered from the cars within the fair.

Passenger Trains for passengers will run to the Grounds from the city every fifteen minutes.

FARE ONLY TEN CENTS.

HON. DANIEL W. VORHEES, of Indiana, will deliver the Annual Address.

Exhibits on Activation of Cotton, by DAVID C. BROWN, Esq., of Georgia.

Grand Prize Distribution of Blooded Stock.

Grand Prize of the Great Pedestrian, in his Wonder.

Twenty Bands of Music.

Single admission to the Grounds, 50 cents

Single admission for children under 12 years of age, 25 cents.

Send for Premium List.

T. M. HOLT, Pres't.

July 21st

G E O R G I A C O T T O N G I N S.

PETER E. SMITH.

First premium awarded to

G. T. STRONACH & BRO.

This Company have thirty years experience in the business, and warrant perfect.

Circulars with testimonials may be had by addressing

G. T. STRONACH & BRO., Raleigh, N. C.

N O T I C E .

The firm of PRIMROSE, PETTY & NEWSOME, of New York, having sold this day, and all persons interested, will receive call and pay, and those having claims will present them for payment.

R. E. PETTY.

J. D. NEWSOME, Members.

July 25th, 1873.

A U C T I O N ! A U C T I O N !

The Raleigh Daily News.

FRIDAY AUGUST 8, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Grange order flourishes at Greensboro.

The tub race at Wrightsville has been abandoned.

Ex-Gov. Sam. Bard, of Ga., was in Charlotte on Tuesday.

The Wilmington Fire Department are to have monthly parades.

The tobacco crop of Stokes county is reported very indifferent.

A darky in Wilmington has an educated coon. Let the coon vote.

The Southern Express line has been discontinued on the Western N. C. R.

The Masonic Lodge at Monroe celebrated its anniversary on last Tuesday.

During the storm of Sunday James Tolar, of Orange county, had a yoke of oxen killed by lightning.

The telegraph office at Franklin was struck by lightning on Saturday night and the battery burnt up.

Up to this time Rev. P. U. Dalton has realized about $8,000 towards the Davidson College Endowment.

Capt. James L. Waddell, the gallant commander of the Confederate steamer Standiano, is in Hillsboro on a visit.

The Library Committee of Wilmington are considering plans for the delivery of a series of lectures in the city during the winter.

Fiat River, Orange county, has eight men whose combined ages amount to 640 years, the eldest being 99 and the youngest 70 years.

The Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, convenes at Silver Creek Church, Burke county, on the 13th inst.

A picnic comes off at Littleton on the 13th inst., when a match game will be played between the Warrenton and Littleton base ball clubs.

The new Court House at Greensboro, which will be the handsomest in the state, with the exception of Caswell, will be completed in a few days.

Henry Parker, col., stabbed Alfred Conner, col., the other night in Wilmington because he (Conner) would not allow him to pay attention to his daughter.

The man who does the heavy work on the New North State (Greensboro) weighs 954 pounds. He delights in the euphonious cognomen of Flitzer. May his shadow never grow less.

The enterprising local of the Wilmington Journal makes some valuable discoveries in astronomical science, and as for knowing the day of the week when it rains, the world can't beat him. He is a smart boy.

The Raleigh News of the 6th inst. regales us to learn that a little child of Mr. Joseph Branch, five years of age, was killed by lightning near Enfield last Saturday. A negro woman was also killed at the same time, and a number of persons injured.

Says the Charlotte Observer of the 6th inst.:

"Trains on this road are now running regularly as heretofore, under charge of J. J. Gourley, temporary Receiver. The train arrived in this city yesterday morning on schedule time, and left again in the afternoon for Stateville also on schedule time. The difficulties which have attended the running of the trains on this road seem to be adjusted, temporarily, at least."

Says the Hillsboro Recorder of the 6th inst.:

"During this summer this vicinity has been singularly blessed with abundant and seasonal rains, and the corn crop never looked more promising than they do now. On the contrary from a low four miles West and North, and extending considerable distance in those directions there has been a distressing absence of rain, and the corn on the uplands is almost past redemption."

It is a gloomy prospect for that section. The wheat crop was light, the fruit a failure and the tobacco crop a short one, and when to this is added material diminution of the corn crop, much distress of a local character is anticipated.

It is probable from the area in cultivation and from the appearance of the crops that at least twenty-five hundred bales of cotton will be made in Orange this season. This is an important addition to the resources of the county, a triumphant exhibition of the flexibility of soil and climate which admits the product of the gulf states along side of the hardy cereals of the North; cotton and tobacco side by side with wheat and oats.

Orange is the county, if it was only improved and cultivated as it deserves."

We have received a small pamphlet of some archaeological importance. It is entitled "Sigmoidia: Being Some Account of the Great or Broad Seal of the Confederate States of America." The seal was made in London, but arrived only in time to be placed on a few documents sent abroad when Grant took Richmond. It was shipped July, 1864, and ran the blockade from Bermuda. The device is the equestrian statue of Washington, after that on the monument at Richmond, surrounded by a wreath composed of the principal products of the Confederacy, and around the margin are the words "Confederate States of America, February 22, 1862," and below, the motto "Dei Vindice." The owner, who is unknown, says in a letter to Colonel Charles C. Jones, author of an excellent work lately published, "Antiquities of the Southern Indians."

AN EXTRAORDINARY GAS WELL.—Among the remarkable gas wells in this country is the Newton well, six miles from Titusville, Pa. It was discovered last year, and produces three millions of cubic feet of gas every twenty-four hours. The gas issues under a pressure of from twenty to thirty pounds per square inch, and for the most part goes to waste. Pipes have been laid to Titusville, and some two hundred and fifty dwelling houses, shops, etc., are now supplied with the gas for illumination and fuel. For heating purposes it is admirable, but for illumination it requires to be passed through naphtha, as it is deficient in carbon.

Two men were recently fined $300 piece in Boston for cruelty to a cat.

Horrible Confession of a Murderer-Fidelity of a Dog.

(From the Harrisburg (Pa.) Journal.)

On Thursday afternoon of last week, Nelson Wade, who murdered Mrs. Isabella McBride in Lycoming county, made a confession which he preceded with the remark that he didn't "care a d— what was done with it." He admitted that he committed the murder, but denied that he shot Mr. McBride, as the coroner's jury decided. The fatal injuries were inflicted with a club. While at a farm house near by he learned where a trunk containing thousands of dollars was located, and about how much the couple was worth. On reaching the house on Tuesday evening he asked Mr. McBride for milk and was directed to the wife, who was about the cellar. She told him that he would have to if he wanted it.

The murderer continued: "I returned to the house and found the door bolted. The old man finally opened it, and I put my foot to the inside. He struck at me, and I knocked him down with my fist, as well as silenced the dog, who made an attack on me. I then struck Mr. McBride three times with the club, and coming back to the house, found the old man up and the dog barking his s—. I gave him another beating, and broke open the trunk I was after. I had to make two trips to carry away the money in it. I got between $60,000 and $70,000. Will not tell where it is. When I die I will reveal it to a poor man, but no rich one shall have it. Two bags of the money are buried in Wilkinsport, two above and two below the city. I have killed several women before, and am willing to hang to-morrow."

Is SHE A BONAPARTE?—A sprightly looking lady, decked in the latest fashionable attire, representing herself as the grand-daughter of the great Napoleon, has taken possession of the Bonaparte mansion, at Bordentown, N. J., and refuses to leave it. She is apparently a woman of refinement, a fluent talker, and issues orders to the occupants in an imperious tone. The agent of the property is now absent, and those who have charge while he is away are placed in a quandary as to what action they will take in reference to this strange lady. Some of them believe that she is veritable representative of the Bonapartist family, and are in ecstasies over the prospect of having the old mansion once more glittering with royal splendor.

A pic-nic comes off at Littleton on the 13th inst., when a match game will be played between the Warrenton and Littleton base ball clubs.

The new Court House at Greensboro, which will be the handsomest in the state, with the exception of Caswell, will be completed in a few days.

Henry Parker, col., stabbed Alfred Conner, col., the other night in Wilmington because he (Conner) would not allow him to pay attention to his daughter.

The man who does the heavy work on the New North State (Greensboro) weighs 954 pounds. He delights in the euphonious cognomen of Flitzer. May his shadow never grow less.

The enterprising local of the Wilmington Journal makes some valuable discoveries in astronomical science, and as for knowing the day of the week when it rains, the world can't beat him. He is a smart boy.

The Raleigh News of the 6th inst. regales us to learn that a little child of Mr. Joseph Branch, five years of age, was killed by lightning near Enfield last Saturday. A negro woman was also killed at the same time, and a number of persons injured.

Says the Charlotte Observer of the 6th inst.:

"Trains on this road are now running regularly as heretofore, under charge of J. J. Gourley, temporary Receiver. The train arrived in this city yesterday morning on schedule time, and left again in the afternoon for Stateville also on schedule time. The difficulties which have attended the running of the trains on this road seem to be adjusted, temporarily, at least."

Says the Hillsboro Recorder of the 6th inst.:

"During this summer this vicinity has been singularly blessed with abundant and seasonal rains, and the corn crop never looked more promising than they do now. On the contrary from a low four miles West and North, and extending considerable distance in those directions there has been a distressing absence of rain, and the corn on the uplands is almost past redemption."

It is a gloomy prospect for that section. The wheat crop was light, the fruit a failure and the tobacco crop a short one, and when to this is added material diminution of the corn crop, much distress of a local character is anticipated.

It is probable from the area in cultivation and from the appearance of the crops that at least twenty-five hundred bales of cotton will be made in Orange this season. This is an important addition to the resources of the county, a triumphant exhibition of the flexibility of soil and climate which admits the product of the gulf states along side of the hardy cereals of the North; cotton and tobacco side by side with wheat and oats.

Orange is the county, if it was only improved and cultivated as it deserves."

We have received a small pamphlet of some archaeological importance. It is entitled "Sigmoidia: Being Some Account of the Great or Broad Seal of the Confederate States of America." The seal was made in London, but arrived only in time to be placed on a few documents sent abroad when Grant took Richmond. It was shipped July, 1864, and ran the blockade from Bermuda. The device is the equestrian statue of Washington, after that on the monument at Richmond, surrounded by a wreath composed of the principal products of the Confederacy, and around the margin are the words "Confederate States of America, February 22, 1862," and below, the motto "Dei Vindice." The owner, who is unknown, says in a letter to Colonel Charles C. Jones, author of an excellent work lately published, "Antiquities of the Southern Indians."

AN EXTRAORDINARY GAS WELL.—Among the remarkable gas wells in this country is the Newton well, six miles from Titusville, Pa. It was discovered last year, and produces three millions of cubic feet of gas every twenty-four hours. The gas issues under a pressure of from twenty to thirty pounds per square inch, and for the most part goes to waste. Pipes have been laid to Titusville, and some two hundred and fifty dwelling houses, shops, etc., are now supplied with the gas for illumination and fuel. For heating purposes it is admirable, but for illumination it requires to be passed through naphtha, as it is deficient in carbon.

Two men were recently fined $300 piece in Boston for cruelty to a cat.

COMMERCIAL REPORTS.

WHOLESALE PRICES.

DAILY NEWS OFFICE, AUGUST 8, 1873.

REMARKS.

Yesterday all branches of trade was exceedingly dull. Quotations remains the same.

COTTON.

Receipts yesterday amounted to about 6,000 bales. Business still flat. Ordinary 12½¢ good ordinary 10; low middlings 17½¢.

GENERAL MARKET.

SALT—Firm at $3 00@3 10. BUTTER—Good to choice mountain 30@40.

EGGS—20.

SAUSAGES—12½¢.

BACON AND BULK MEAT.

Bacon—Good—Bacon, 10@12½¢. Bulk, 12½¢. Side, 12½¢. Rib Side, 14½¢.

Sugar-cured Hams, heavy, 18@20.

BUTTER—Patapisco $12½¢; Hope Mills Extra $9.

CORN—Row 10¢ Cut $8@9¢; Corn Shad $1@1½¢.

HAY—Northern, none in market; North Carolina—2½¢.

POTATOES—Irish, 2½¢; sweet, 8¢@11¢.

1873 CLOTHING, 1873

SPRING AND SUMMER,

SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT!

R. B. ANDREWS & CO.,

27 Fayetteville St., Raleigh, N. C.

CLOTHIERS,

1873 CLOTHING,

FOR MENS, BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

FOR GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR WOMEN, GIRLS & CHILDREN,

FOR BOYS, YOUTHS & CHILDREN,

